

Steve Wozniak Stepping Out

The "idol" for straight-shooting, non-commercial industry geeks, The Woz was never known to dance around any subject...uh, until now. He's two-stepping his way as the fan-favorite on America's "Dancing with the Stars."

Hard to believe (after one judge said it was absolutely the "worst samba" he'd ever seen and another quipped the portly tech's "novelty starts to wear thin",) that Steve is still in contest. On the other hand, Steve-O of "Jackass" fame is still in the contest, too. Go, Woz.
