No More "Dancing with the Stars" for Woz

Relegated to the sidelines, the Woz was eliminated from the Dancing With the Stars show. "Any geek had to look at him, and say, 'There, but for the grace of God, go I,'" said one observer. "They were just happy that he didn't fall down."

You can watch Woz say "Goodbye" while his dancing partner, professional Karina Smirnoff, seems to having a Janet Jackson moment. Hear Woz praise his partner in true Geek boy-to-girl eloquence: "Karina ... forever, man. I want to dance more with you!"
